

BOND MONEY THAT MAY BE COMMITTED OR ALLOCATED BEGINNING
IN SIX TO 18 MONTHS AFTER JULY 1, 2000.

1. Flood Protection Corridor Program - $70 million to help establish and manage flood protection corridors.
2. Delta Levee Rehabilitation Program - $30 million to DWR/DFG and local agencies for levee improvements and wildlife habitat improvements located in the Delta.
3. Urban Streams Restoration Program - $25 million for flood protection and restoration activities.
4. Capital Area Flood Protection Program - $20 million to the Sacramento Area Flood Control Agency to pay part of the State's share of the costs of flood management projects. *
5. San Lorenzo River Flood Protection Program - $2 million to Santa Cruz to pay part of the State's share of the San Lorenzo flood management project. *
6. Yuba Feather Flood Protection Program - $70 million for flood protection projects; $20 million for habitat mitigation and/or enhancements.
7. Arroyo Pasajero Program - $5 million to DWR to finance projects that improve flood protection of highways near Huron and improve flood protection for the State Water Project aqueduct.
8. Agricultural Water Conservation Program - $35 million for water ag water conservation projects.
9. Groundwater Recharge Facilities Program - $30 million for groundwater recharge projects.
10. Infrastructure Rehabilitation Program - $60 million to develop infrastructure rehabilitation projects (pipe replacements in economically disadvantaged areas).
11. Urban Water Conservation Program - $30 million for urban water conservation projects.
12. Groundwater Storage Program - $200 million for conjunctive use projects.
13. Bay-Delta Multipurpose Water Management Program - $250 million to fund specific projects identified in the CALFED EIS/R as CALFED Stage 1 actions.
14. Safe Drinking Water - $70 million to meet safe drinking water standards (Department of Health Services is the program manager; DWR is the "accountant" only).

* Water Code Sections require State authorization of flood protection projects and federal appropriations before money is allocated (to local agencies).